Evangelizing the Real Haiti

Dear Friends and Partners,

Greetings from Haiti. Once you leave the cities, you begin to see the Haiti where most Haitians live.

Gorgeous, plush with life, and very difficult to get to when steep mountain roads turn into foot paths.

This is the Haiti that is home to our Book of Hope Coordinator for Bainet. Josmy Delmas (blue T-shirt) and his family have opened their hearts and home to reach the kids of Bainet in South Haiti.

The books arrived to the Delmas' house by 4X4 pick up and were stored on the front porch (above left) until they could be dispersed to teams. In Bainet, this is accomplished by foot or donkey. Twenty two educators (above) received training and volunteered to visit 5,000 kids in their homes over a 10 day period. Along with a copy of the Book of Hope, each child was invited to see The GodMan.

Bainet Kids see The GodMan Film

They came from everywhere with their books in hand! Almost 500 kids and parents walked from miles around to view The GodMan film. Although the film was shown in a Church, this was not a Church crowd. Rather, it was a community event made up of all types of people.

After the presentation of the Gospel and prayer, the children participated in a prize drawing. The little girl above came forward to claim her toy doll with a winning ticket in one hand and a copy of the Book of Hope she had received days earlier in the other. We thank God for empowering Delmas and his team to reach this first of 9 Bainet sections with His Word.
