Regular and Super Size God Man

Dear Friends and Partners,

Greetings from Haiti. We've been very happy to show The God Man movie in a variety of settings.

The movie is a very powerful communication tool. These children's eyes were "glued" to the screen as they watched the animated crucifixion scene.

Audiences of 25 to 50 kids are very common. There are many small schools and orphanages in Haiti. One after school Kid's club (above) served the children cookies and juice.

400 Kids on a Saturday Morning

On a larger scale, Pastor Aubelin's Church (lower left) utilized invitations and a drawing to bring a lot of new children to their Saturday Morning Kid's Club.

After The God Man, Pastor Aubelin (above) invited children to pray and ask Jesus to be their savior. Many came forward, knelt down, and prayed. God's presence was there in a special way as the kids seriously considered the salvation message presented in the movie. Many indicated they wanted to ask Jesus into their hearts as Lord and Savior. Praise the Lord!

Kids Given a Carnival Challenge

The day before school let out for Carnival, a dark tradition, the director of a large private school (above) told us she wanted her children to see the positive message in The God Man before they went home to celebrate Carnival with their families. After the movie, she challenged the kids to make a commitment to Christ and 30 youth came to the Lord!

Thank you for being an important part of this work in Haiti. You are a blessing to us and God's kingdom.

All our love, Dan, Liz & Joey
