Impacting the city of Independence

Dear Friends and Partners,

Greetings from Modesto. We are delighted to be in California this week visiting friends and ministry partners who help us in the Lord's work in Haiti. Lord willing, we hope to see many of you this summer before returning to Haiti August 20th.

When the Book of Hope first arrived in Haiti a few years ago, Gonaives (above) did not at first join in the work. But, that all changed in late 2006 when we received an invitation to present the ministry to a large group of pastors. Today, several teams are working diligently to reach all the children and youth in their city before the end of this year.

Gonaives is the city where Haiti first declared its independence from France in 1804. Since then, it has been like a thermostat to all of Haiti precipitating national change, even revolution. For example, when the people of Gonaives turn against a president, history shows that the rest of Haiti will soon follow and his government will fall. Wow! If this is true, then since Gonaives has accepted the challenge to evangelize its children through the Book of Hope, could we also expect all of Haiti to follow? Please join us in prayer asking God to prepare every city in Haiti to follow their example.

Fishing for Children and Youth

Pastor Genada (above left) is a Filipino Missionary. He and his Bible school students are one of our partners in Gonaives. Recently, while he and his team were visiting a school, he had a conversation with a teen age boy outside the school gate. Pastor Genada was able to talk to the young man about Christ and lead him to accept the Lord. Afterwards, the young man asked Pastor Genada what kind of book his team was giving inside the school. Pastor Genada told him it was the Book of Hope. The boy then excitedly shared with Pastor Genada how he had received a Book of Hope at his school a couple of weeks before and thought it was a great book. Further, he said he and his family were spending time reading it every night. Wow! This report echoes stories Pastor Compere (above right) has shared that parents of children who have received the books are telling how they and their children are reading the Book of Hope together at home.

We believe God is using this wonderful tool to touch many children's lives throughout Haiti in a similar way. We consider it a wonderful privilege to be partners with you and the Lord in the great work He is doing among children and youth throughout Haiti. Thanks!

All our love, Dan, Liz & Joey
