“Operation Attack Gonaives”

Dear Friends and Partners,

Greetings from Haiti. What do you have when you recruit a group of 35 volunteer evangelists from 6 Churches to invade Gonaives schools for a whole week? We called it "Operation Attack Gonaives."

Each day began with a time of prayer (above) followed by teams piling into 4 pickups loaded with "Book of Hope" ammunition. They then rushed to battle with the enemy by sharing the gospel in public and private schools throughout the city.

By the end of the week, more than 30,000 kids received a personal copy of God's Word in the form of the Book of Hope. Like the boy above, we saw many young people begin reading their new books as soon as they received them.

Sweeping Up with “The God Man”

Besides invading schools with the books, we also utilized the animated version of the Book of Hope in several school assemblies and after school events. Above, more than 400 children watch as one of the child actors in "The God Man" learns about Jesus. The movie is challenging kids to put their faith in Christ.

More Missionaries Join the Work

Upon arriving in Gonaives, we were introduced to Filipino missionaries Juanito and Rose Genada. They immediately asked if they could send 12 students from their Bible School to participate in "Attack Gonaives." Their group did a great job and helped push us past our goal. We were encouraged to learn that churches from the Philippines have sent the Genadas to Haiti.

Thanks for your prayers and support!

All our love, Dan, Liz & Joey
