Striking Water in Miragoane

Dear Friends and Partners,

Greetings from Haiti. We thank God for each of you and the important part you have in God's work in Haiti. We are excited to announce that a water well was successfully drilled at the Church in Miragoane! We would like to thank the Apostolic

World Relief Mission for donating the materials. Also, the MEBSH Drilling Ministry from Cayes headed up by Missionary Jan Gutwein (right) and his Forman, Enoc (left) who provided the drilling rig and labor at a very reasonable price. The crew arrived the morning of February, 25th, set up equipment, started drilling and found water at 85 ft. (left pictures) By the end of the day, they capped a 6" PVC pipe in preparation for a cement base and hand pump which was installed the next day. (Picture coming soon!) Finally, thanks to Pastor Rick Milone and the Saints from RUWA Ministries who donated the funds to pay for the drilling service. Children from the Miragoane School are now receiving fresh water every day. Praise the Lord!

4X4 Mule Joins Bainet Team

When the rubber can no longer meet the road, the hoof takes over! Such is the case in most of Haiti and especially in areas like Bainet where Book of Hope Zone Coordinator Jean Josmy Delmas (right) sometimes hires a donkey to transport the projection and sound equipment needed to show The GodMan film.

Brother Delmas and his network of numerous ministry partners are well on their way to reaching the kids and youth of their department.

Their strategy is Door-to-Door Evangelism. Teachers volunteer to visit children in their homes after school to talk to them about Jesus, give them a copy of the Book of Hope, and invite them to come to a large group showing of The GodMan film. (above) Even when the film showing is many days later and far away, many kids will show up carrying their Book of Hope excited to see the film. Thanks to the Lord and you, many children are receiving the life changing Word of God throughout the country of Haiti. We appreciate you!

All our love, Dan, Liz & Joey
